Temi is a 13 year old actor based in London.
He loves sport – he plays football, rugby and cricket.
Temi also loves travelling but most of all he loves acting!

Temi's acting career began at the age of 8 when he first appeared on a big screen in Star Wars The Last Jedi. Temi loved his first experience and decided to pursue the acting career.

He attended numerous acting courses and workshops and continues to develop his talent and skills.

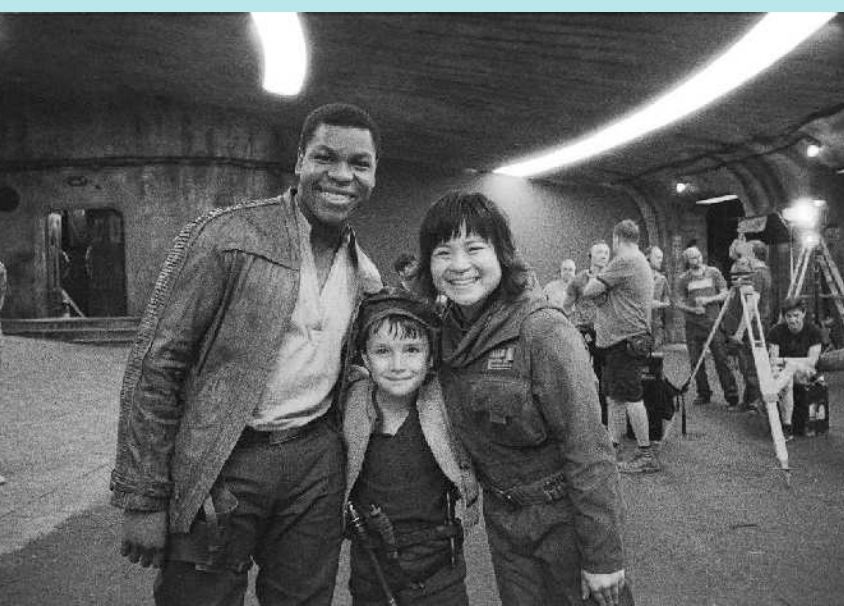

Currently he is taking the LAMDA (London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art) lessons and has just passed his exam.

Temi is good with accents. He also can speak Russian fluently, which helped him to get the role in Killing Eve where his character speaks Russian and English with Russian accent.

After his appearance in The Last Jedi as a Stable boy, his character became well known around the world as a “Broom boy”.

Temi was invited as a guest to many Comic Cons in Amsterdam, Germany, Birmingham, Cardiff and London where he met his favourite actors and had a chance to talk to them about the acting career.

Temi enjoys communicating with his fans and friends on social media. He has Instagram, Facebook and a Twitter account which he runs altogether with his parents.

What critics say:

Killing Eve "Are You From Pinner" was terrifically acted episode. Comer is the kind of actress who can make the phone book compelling and Blaev shows he is a talent to watch out for.
